Heh, heh.

Seriously, folks, a word about finances.

The money alloted to us for starting this magazine is almost gone, given the high cost of printing in the Phase II economy, and we need your help — immediately — to stay alive.

We wish to announce at this time that one-year subscriptions to "Osceola" are available for a limited time only (56 years, to be exact) by forwarding five dollars to us with the handy, dandy order blank below. That's right, only five dollars for a full year of sports, entertainment, arts, politics, news and opinion from South Carolina's capital.

And after all, what else can you get for five dollars these days. . . a few packs of cigarettes, a couple of hamburgers, a few months of The State. Almost nothing. Very few politicians around here would even bite for five bucks . . . well, not all of them anyway.

So please help us survive. If you see this edition, write us and tell us what you liked and what you didn't. We plan to improve each issue. We hope you will help us by subscribing as soon as it is economically feasible for you to do so.
